Information for California Customers

In response to a California law, we automatically treat accounts with California billing addresses as if you do not want to disclose personal information about you to non-affiliated third parties except as permitted by the applicable California law. We will also limit the sharing of personal information about you with our affiliates to comply with all California privacy laws that apply to us.

Under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), California residents have the right to request that MainStreet disclose the following to you:

- Categories of personal information MainStreet has collected about you in the past 12 months
- Categories of sources from which your personal information is collected
- Business or commercial purpose for collecting your personal information
- Categories of third parties with whom MainStreet shares your personal information
- Specific pieces of personal information MainStreet has collected about you; and
- Whether or not your personal information has been sold.

You also have the right to request that we delete your personal information that we have collected from you and retained, subject to certain exceptions.

Please note: We may contact MainStreet customers by phone or email to verify that the account holder is a California resident and is the person making this request or their authorized agent. For non-MainStreet customers, we may send a letter requesting additional details to validate the requestor's identity and his or her California residency.

Please refer to the Fifth Third Bank California Consumer Privacy Act Privacy Notice, found on the Fifth Third Bank (MainStreet's parent company) Website at the following website address: <http://www.53.com/onlineprivacy>. This Notice fully outlines Fifth Third Bank's CCPA compliance obligations, as well as your rights as a Consumer of Fifth Third Bank and MainStreet under the terms and conditions of CCPA.

This request process has been designed to meet the specific requirements of the CCPA on behalf of the residents of California. Fifth Third Bank, NA is not fulfilling requests from non-California residents at this time.
