CRAIG ROCKEY
MANAGING DIRECTOR

Craig joined MainStreet Advisors in 2017 and is responsible for new business development and relationship management. In this role, he handles the ongoing relationship management needs of existing clients, and also works with prospective clients to introduce them to the services MainStreet Advisors offers.

Prior to joining MainStreet Advisors, Craig served as Vice President and Senior Banker for J.P. Morgan Private Bank in Chicago. In this role, he was responsible for business development and relationship management for high net worth families and organizations, as well as leading a team of specialists to provide comprehensive wealth management solutions to clients. Having served for many years as a senior-level manager within the banking and trust industry, Craig brings both valuable experience and industry knowledge to the MainStreet Advisors team.
